Regulations

The allocation & positioning of trade stands will be entirely at the discretion of the society.

On reporting to the trade stand steward, you will be shown your allocated plot which will be clearly marked out for you. All trade stands should be set out and ready to receive the public at the opening of the show at 9am.

Exhibitors must not extend beyond the boundary of the allocated plot.

Stewards will have the power to remove from the show ground any exhibitor or articles for sale that are deemed inappropriate.

The society, its officials & stewards shall not be held responsible for any accident, (fatal or otherwise), damage or loss, (however caused), that may occur to persons, property or goods exhibited on the show ground.

Exhibitors are required to remove all litter at the close of the show.

Exhibitors may only sell items that are detailed on this application form

Health & Safety

Each exhibitor must ensure the correct documentation relating to health & safety and public liability insurance, is available for inspection. Please complete risk assessment form attached.

Withdrawal or Cancellation

If for any reason an exhibitor wishes to withdraw or cancel booking all fees will be forfeited. However, if the show is cancelled all monies will be repaid.

Unsuitable Traders

The stewards & officials have the power to remove from the showground any exhibitor whose articles are not in accordance with the description given on the application form or any vendor of shoddy articles, or who use unsuitable methods of trading, or any itinerant vendor who may have gained access to the showground. The definitions of what constitutes shoddy or unsuitable shall rest entirely with the stewards & show officials.

Litter

Exhibitors are required to remove all of their litter before they leave the showground.

Disclaimer of Responsibility

The society, its officials & stewards shall not be held responsible for any accident fatal or otherwise, damage or loss however caused that may occur to any tradesperson, his servant or other person. Each exhibitor must be responsible for any loss, injury or damage.
